READY FOR COUNT VON KOTZE.

He Puts a Bullet in the Abdomen of Baron von Schrader.

A DUEL NEAR POTSDAM. Third Encounter of the Series Arising From the Ugly Court Scandals in Germany.

BERLIN, April 10.—There was a sensation in court and military circles here this morning when it was announced that another duel growing out of the great court scandalous letter scandal had taken place in the woods near Potsdam, and that Baron von Schrader, Master of Ceremonies of the Prussian Court, had been shot and seriously wounded by Count von Kotze. The latter was formerly Count Chamberlain and was acquitted on the charge of being the author of the anonymous communications referred to.

Count von Kotze and Baron von Schrader used pistols and the latter was severely wounded in the abdomen. Count von Kotze's arrest has been ordered, and his friends say he will surrender the authorities whenever and wherever called upon to do so. This is the third duel of the series of duels between Count von Kotze and Baron von Schrader, which began nearly five years ago, when high court personages, male and female, old and young, began receiving anonymous letters or postal cards, calling their attention to this or that scandal upon their own part, or upon the part of relatives or friends. As a result wives became separated from their husbands and fathers and mothers discarded their children, nearly everybody of importance being accused more or less by the venom of the anonymous writer, who was evidently a person thoroughly familiar with all the details of court life. People began to look askance at their friends.

Every effort possible was made by the police to discover the guilty person, but in spite of this the anonymous writer was able to continue the cruel work for about four years. The general opinion was that the writer was a woman, but gradually this opinion changed and for some unexplained reason suspicion fastened itself upon Count von Kotze, one of the court chamberlains, a popular man, well liked by the Emperor and trusted by all his friends. Finally a voluntary spy denounced him to the court authorities on the ground that on the blotting paper pad of a letter pad used by the Count he had found a clear reproduction of one of the anonymous letters, and a card, Therese von Kotze was arrested and confined in the fortress. Upon trial he was acquitted, the charges brought against him.

While von Kotze was in prison, the tide of sympathy was turning in his direction. Ugly whisperings were heard on all sides, his arrest was openly denounced as an outrage, and the names of a number of very high court personages were mentioned, including Duke Ernest of Schleswig-Holstein, brother-in-law of Emperor William of Germany. In fact, some persons even went so far as to cast aspersions of suspicion upon a higher person than Duke Günther, though it would seem without any ground for so doing.

When Count von Kotze was released from prison, he promptly sent out challenges to a dozen of those whom he believed to have been implicated in a plot to ruin him in order to have the reputation of the high personage, whoever he may be, who is looked upon as the author of the anonymous communications.

Among the principal persons challenged were Baron von Schrader, master of ceremonies of the Prussian court; Prince Albert of Schleswig-Holstein, brother-in-law of Emperor William of Germany. In fact, some persons even went so far as to cast aspersions of suspicion upon a higher person than Duke Günther, though it would seem without any ground for so doing.

The first of the series of duels was fought with pistols at the Grunewald, early during the morning of April 12 last, between Count von Kotze and Baron von Reischach. The latter was severely wounded, and the conditions, namely, that shots would be exchanged until one of the contestants was to be badly wounded as to be unable to continue fighting. Seven shots were exchanged, with the result that both the Count and the Baron had more or less severe flesh wounds.

At the eighth shot von Kotze fell with a bullet in the loins. His life was despaired of for a time, although he recovered. He is a cripple for life, though he walks with greater ease than was expected.

There was some talk of sending Count von Kotze and his opponent to prison for fighting the duel, but there was such popular sympathy for von Kotze that the Emperor overlooked the matter on the Count's reported promise to give up his plan of fighting the rest of the series.

INSANE WOMAN POISONED.

John Keeting's Young Wife Dying in the Hospital.

HER HUSBAND A FUGITIVE. A Once Beautiful Young Matron Deserted Under Circumstances That Have Aroused Dark Suspicions.

NEW ORLEANS, April 10.—A special from Lafayette says: Information received here from St. Landry Parish says that Dr. F. C. Martin, in command of some 500 men at a point, has been shot and wounded. No particulars can be obtained as to who shot Col. Martin or the nature of his wound. Dr. G. A. Martin, a resident of Lafayette and brother of Col. Martin, was much concerned to ascertain definite news by telephone from his home at Lake Charles, but was not at home. Further information is that two white men and twenty-five negroes have been killed in the affray. While the above is based entirely upon reports, circumstances give probability as to its truth.

What may develop into a splendid plot of wife murder came to light Friday morning when Mrs. Elizabeth Johnston, a pleasant old lady of 60 years, called at the City Dispensary with tears in her eyes and asked permission to see her daughter, Mrs. Mamie Keeting.

Mrs. Keeting, a young woman, a few weeks ago beautiful and accomplished, and mother of two small children, is confined in a cell at the City Hospital, bereft of reason and a physical wreck. She may live only a few days.

Every doctor who has attended her says that she has been poisoned. John Keeting is in the eye of the law a fugitive from justice, there being an indictment against him for election frauds committed over a year ago.

John Keeting is reputed to be the son of a wealthy West End resident. Four years ago he married Mamie Johnston, who lived with her mother at 503 South Broadway. He met her in the room over Joe Caffera's saloon at Thirteenth and Pine streets, where she frequently visited her sister, Caffera's wife.

A year ago the St. Louis Grand-jury returned an indictment charging Keeting with an election fraud and he hurriedly left town. No one knew where he had gone, not even his wife, until a month afterward, when he sent for her and their 3-year-old boy. He was in La Grange, Mo., and it was there that Mrs. Keeting and her child went.

From that time the account of the sick and insane Keeting took the form of a beautiful story. Mrs. Keeting took the two children to a house in the city and carried them into the saloon. Mrs. Caffera was awakened, and Keeting told her that he had brought her to St. Louis for treatment. He wanted Mrs. Caffera to take care of the children for two or three days until he could place his wife in a sanatorium.

Mrs. Caffera was willing and went out on the sidewalk to meet her sister. Both women began crying. It was said that Mrs. Caffera recognized the wreck in the buggy the sister she had seen a year ago. Yet both the sister and her husband were the same, the toothless jaws, the bearded eyes and the disheveled hair there were the traces of a beautiful woman.

Keeting jumped in the buggy and drove away, telling Mrs. Caffera that he would be back in a few days. That was the last seen of him by them.

It now develops that Keeting drove to the City Dispensary, where Dr. Thompson was on watch. The doctor assisted him to undo the straps that bound the insane woman to the seat and they carried her into the operating room. After making an examination Dr. Thompson told Keeting that the woman had been poisoned, and inquired of him if he knew how it was done.

Keeting said he had some papers in his bag and went out into the alley. Instead of getting any papers he jumped into the buggy and drove away, leaving his wife in the Dispensary.

The woman had been salivated by a preparation in mercury, probably calomel. All her teeth had dropped out and the bones throughout her body were affected. Although undoubtedly insane, she had enough reason left to tell part of her story. She said that after their second child was born at La Grange, her husband began abusing her and on many occasions beat her until she was unconscious. He had several times threatened to put poison in her food, as he said she was in the way of his endeavor to avoid arrest.

COL. KERENS SAYS HE ISN'T GUILTY.

Denies That He Has the Purposes Russell Imputes to Him.

JUGGLING WITH TICKETS. According to Uncle Filley's Fee It Would Be Impossible and It Isn't Thought Of.

Col. R. C. Kerens is not contemplating the use of books at the National Convention. He says so himself, and furthermore, he says that every fair-minded man knows that he would not resort to dishonest methods to further his political or personal ends. He made this statement apropos of the letter written by E. F. Russell, Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives, and published in Thursday's Post-Dispatch.

The letter contained some serious charges against Mr. Kerens in connection with the manipulation of tickets to the National Convention. Mr. Kerens, in the words of Mr. Russell, was "a man of no honor, no integrity, no principle, no conscience, no sense of duty, no regard for the rights of others, no respect for the laws of the land, no consideration for the welfare of the country, no regard for the honor of the party, no regard for the honor of the nation, no regard for the honor of the world."

STANLEY PROS FROM KANSAS.

The Republic and an "Intriguing Politician" Denounced.

BOTH ARE UNGRATEFUL. A Preference Expressed for Mr. Bland for President and Free Silver Indorsed.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

VIENNA, Mo., April 10.—The Democrats of Marion County held an enthusiastic meeting here Wednesday. It was one of the best meetings held in many years. The following delegates were selected to attend the Sedalia Convention: W. M. Barr, R. L. Schenker, F. F. Waters, I. J. Love and H. Joyce. The county being entitled to only two votes, each one will cast one-third of a vote.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we favor the immediate, independent, free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at the rate of 16 to 1 without awaiting the action of any other nation, and we instruct our delegates to the Sedalia Convention to vote accordingly. Resolved, That we favor the immediate, independent, free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at the rate of 16 to 1 without awaiting the action of any other nation, and we instruct our delegates to the Sedalia Convention to vote accordingly.

Resolved, That we condemn the malignant and mendacious assaults being made by the St. Louis Republic upon illustrious Democrats who have been called to leadership of the party by the people. That journal has for many years been sustained by the people of Marion County, and it is daily devoting its columns to unwarranted misrepresentations of men in whom Missouri Democrats have placed the highest confidence and trust, and is constantly endeavoring by reckless and malicious attacks to destroy those whom the party desires to honor. We cannot but entertain contempt for such journalism, as well as for the intruding politician who inspires it. He has been honored by the party of the State with the nomination for Governor, and is ungrateful and unkind of the undesired favors he has received. He has shown a willingness to sacrifice the party for his own ambition.

JOHN BULL'S BELLY TOO FULL.

THE DANGERS OF DONGOLA.

Indications That the Plan of Advancing Farther Than Akasheh is Abandoned for the Present.

NEW YORK, April 10.—A special to a local paper from Cairo, Egypt, says: From indications here it is thought that the plan of pushing the Anglo-Egyptian army to Dongola has been suddenly abandoned. The purchase of camels and horses has been stopped. Lord Cromer and Sir Herbert Kitchener have had a great deal of telegraphic correspondence during the last thirty-six hours.

It has been found, it is thought, that the force up the Nile is too weak to cope with the hordes of dervishes now in the field and gathering to the south of the Egyptian army.

It is not probable now that any attempt will be made to advance beyond the former point at present. It is believed, too, that it is the intention of the British to move strongly by the Sudan route when the time for active hostilities arrives.

TORTURED BY THE NEGUS.

It Is Said He Has Cut Off the Legs of a Thousand Prisoners.

NEW YORK, April 10.—A special to the Herald from Rome says: The defeat of the Italians at Tuerit, the real extent of which still remains concealed, seems likely to be the preface to the taking of Kassala. This place has been vigorously attacked. The Panfilla advocates the abandonment of Africa, anticipating other serious disasters.

The Capitale asserts that the Negus has cut off the legs of a thousand of his prisoners. Baldissera is preparing to send help to Adigrat to prevent the place from being taken.

The diplomatic attempt of the English to obtain the co-operation of Italian troops in the Sudan has completely failed.

MENELIK AND THE MAHDI.

They May Make Common Cause Against the English in Africa.

MASSOWAH, April 10.—The interesting report is received here that the Negus Menelik, Italy's late successful antagonist at Adowa, has sent a delegate to negotiate with the dervishes. An alliance between the Abyssinians and the dervishes would upset many calculations.

Menelik is a Christian, as are his subjects. In times past they have been at war with the Mohammedan dervishes, to whom they are of the hated class of infidels, and during the former occupation by the English of the Sudan Menelik proved himself a valuable and reliable ally to them. On this account it has been believed that Menelik and the Mahdi were not likely to enter into an alliance, although the dervishes were expected to have been the allies of the Negus.

The political exigencies of the case, however, have led to the conclusion that he will ally himself with the dervishes to make a common cause against the English.

PARDONED AT LAST.

An Innocent Man Who Spent Sixteen Years in the Pen.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 10.—William Slowey, who has been in the Fort Madison Penitentiary for sixteen years for the murder of a traveling man in his saloon in Clinton, has been pardoned by the Legislature. The murder was a most brutal one. The man was choked to death in an attempt to rob him. Slowey's wife and a negro named Harris assisted, as was then supposed. Harris, on his deathbed, confessed that he and Mrs. Slowey killed the man.

SUITS FOR LANDS.

Claim That They Were Sold for Less Than Their Value.

MANIKATO, Minn., April 10.—Hon. Geo. T. Barr and Messrs. Hubbard & Palmer are made defendants in a suit involving $100,000 worth of land. About five years ago A. P. Foster, a prominent attorney, was accidentally drowned in the Minnesota River, leaving as heirs his sister, Mrs. Azelia F. Smith, and two daughters. Deceased had recently become the equitable owner of some $100,000 worth of land located in Martin, Redwood, Yellow Medicine and Jackson counties. Senator Hubbard was appointed administrator of the estate and was appointed to sell the land. He has since sold these lands to T. B. Hubbard and Geo. M. Palmer for $100,000. Mr. Barr has since resigned his position and Mrs. Smith takes his place and now brings action to recover said lands, which she claims were worth $50,000 at that time and have since tripled in value. The case will be tried at the May term of court.

Eczema ON BABY

Grow Worse Under Treatment of Best Physicians. Tried CUTICURA REMEDIES

Greatest Change in Five Days and To-day is Entirely Cured.

My baby had Eczema in its worst form. One of the best physicians in the city attended her, but she continued to get worse all the time. I finally admitted her to the hospital, and I then got CUTICURA REMEDIES in a few days noticed a great change in her condition. She continued to improve and to-day is entirely cured. Had she been treated with CUTICURA REMEDIES, she would have been cured long ago. I am a mother and I know. J. B. JACOBS, 3011 Wilkins Ave., Balt. Md.

DR. STIMSON'S FUTURE.

May Be Made Pastor of an Independent Church in St. Louis.

SPECIAL TO THE POST-DISPATCH. NEW YORK, April 10.—The congregation of the Broadway Tabernacle is still talking of the summary way in which the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Stimson, its pastor, was accepted Wednesday night.

Regarding the general accusations made against him, Dr. Stimson said: "When I came here, I was led to believe that the congregation, and especially the brethren who came to confer with me, were prepared to accept the new conditions and to adopt a policy appropriate to them. I outlined to the committee which was sent to me the policy necessary to such a movement. I pointed out the necessity of a revised and adequate financial scheme; a sufficient staff of workers; proper facilities for work; and above all, a definite decision as to the policy of the church and a hearty co-operation of the leading members in swinging the church into a new line."

"In the three years in which I have been pastor of the church no member of the congregation, however wealthy, has contributed or has had any way by which he could contribute to the expenses of the church beyond the amount of his pew rent."

"I have been without pastoral assistance, despite my effort to secure it. I have been a definite decision as to the policy of the church and a hearty co-operation of the leading members in swinging the church into a new line."

"We have received into the church 140 new members, which is more than twice the number received in the previous three years."

Dr. Stimson has made no calculations for the future, and is uncertain as to where his next field of labor will be.

A dispatch from St. Louis says that Dr. Stimson may return to that city, the scene of his former labors. A quiet movement is on foot there to make him pastor of an independent church. He has written to a friend, it is said, that he is sorry he ever quit St. Louis.

One of the church trustees said: "It certainly cannot be urged that the administrative bodies of the church have treated Dr. Stimson in any ungenerous spirit. We propose to give him $15,000, the amount of one year's salary, and when it is remembered that Dr. Stimson has been connected with the Tabernacle only three years, it must be admitted that the committee has endeavored to act fairly toward him."

FOR RECIPROCITY.

Provisions of the Bill Submitted by Representative Hopkins.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 10.—The subcommittee of the Committee on Ways and Means, which has been conducting an investigation into the results of the recent reciprocity policy of the Government, has agreed to report to the full committee, as a substitute for the large number of measures that have been proposed in Congress during this session relating to reciprocity and retaliation, a bill which was offered by Mr. Hopkins in the House of Representatives yesterday.

The first section recites that for the purpose of equalizing the trade of the United States with foreign countries, the President is authorized to make such reciprocal arrangements as he may deem proper, and to enter into negotiations with several classes of countries with a view to the arrangement of commercial agreements in which reciprocal and equivalent concessions may be secured by the United States.

The second section of the bill gives authority to the President to make such reciprocal arrangements as he may deem proper, and to enter into negotiations with several classes of countries with a view to the arrangement of commercial agreements in which reciprocal and equivalent concessions may be secured by the United States.

Lacy, cashier of the Trustee-Lenox Bank, who has been secured by a Kansas City bank. Preston told Sheriff Andronno he was afraid to come to St. Joseph because he had received letters warning him that he would be shot.

But This Bicycle Thief Stopped When Shot At.

George Wiles stole a bicycle belonging to George Baptiste, the athlete, from 398 Cook avenue Thursday. He was stopped by Policeman Derby, and declared he worked for Baptiste, and was simply out for a spin. He was taken back to the house, and then made a break for liberty.

In his flight he cleared four high fences, broke several gates, and was making good his escape, when Derby shot at him. Then he threw up his hands, screamed out that he was shot and fell forward on his face. He was only "playing" possum. A warrant for burglary was issued against him.

BRASS KNUCKS AND TEETH.

With Them Mrs. Wildred Ryan Disfigured Her Neighbors.

Two warrants for assault and battery were issued against Mrs. Mildred Ryan of 28 South Eighth street. Minnie Webber of 25 South Eighth, and Myrtle McAvoy of 98 Walnut, swore to them.

The former has a broken nose and two black eyes. The latter has a bruised physiognomy, a vacant space in her gum and a mouthful of flesh from the right hand.

Mildred accomplished this at separate times. The witnesses aver that she had no cause to act as she did, but she just used brass knucks as well as her teeth.

Officer Bob McCormick, who accompanied the complainants, says Mrs. Ryan is a constant menace to the peace of her neighbors. Once he went to her house to recover a baby which she had taken from the street. She faced him with a revolver and kept him guessing until he disarmed her.

CALEDONIANS MEET.

Four New Members Are Admitted at the Quarterly Gathering.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Caledonian Society was held Thursday evening at the Mercantile Club. President Dugald Crawford presided.

The most important business transacted at the meeting was the admission of four new members into the society. They were Hon. Robert McKimley of Paris, Ill.; George Smith, James J. McRoberts and Colin Campbell. The latter three are St. Louisans.

Enthusiastic speeches were made by the members, and the meeting was a most successful one.

After partaking of a cold collation the members adjourned on the invitation of King Hot's subjects to the floor above, where they joined in the celebration which the Fanny Fellows were there holding.

A physician in a New York town, not far from Albany, writes September 20th, 1895: "I had a case recently that will be of interest to you. An old gentleman had suffered from flatulence, due to indigestion; had been so annoyed by it that he had consulted all the doctors in the vicinity without securing any benefit. Finally he came to my office, I prescribed several remedies which failed utterly. I then prescribed Ripans Tablets, which he reported gave him immediate relief, and he is now nearly cured. I think it would be an excellent thing for you to make a strong feature of 'flatulence' in your advertisements, as I find them excellent in almost every case of that sort."
